Dear Parents/Students,

As a follow up to yesterday's announcement (Shift to All-Virtual Extended through Thanksgiving), I am sharing our All-Virtual Schedule below. As a reminder, all students will report for live synchronous virtual instruction on Monday, November 16. To access student bell schedules, click below.

All-Virtual Middle School Student Bell Schedule

All-Virtual High School Student Bell Schedule

All students, grades 7 – 12, regardless of their assigned cohort, will be expected to report for 1st bell/Homeroom on Monday at 8:55 a.m. and should follow the reporting sequence explained below.

N O V E M B E R

Attendance

Please be advised that students must report to virtual class, on time, pursuant to the bell schedule. Students are directed to follow the daily bell schedule, log into Schoology, and access a live streaming app for each course. On Tuesdays and Thursdays are reserved for asynchronous learning and teachers will be available to provide additional support on these days.

Office Hours/Enrichment

Office hours/enrichment are provided in the morning on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays from 8:05 – 8:40 a.m. In the afternoon, office hours/enrichment will be provided Monday through Friday from 2:10 – 2:45 p.m.

Cameras On!

We are strongly encouraging our students to turn on their cameras and engage in the teaching and learning process. We find that the student experiences is enhanced when student cameras are on.

Mid-Semester Progress Reports

November 17th marks the midpoint for Semester One. We will be mailing home progress reports for all students beginning on November 30th. Parents can always view their child's grade on Schoology.

Our commitment to your health and wellbeing is our top priority. You can assist us by remaining vigilant and responsible in your approach to dealing with this health concern. Should you have any questions or need information about testing, contact the Gloucester County COVID-19 Hotline at (856) 218-4142.

Home of the Dragons

Very truly yours,

Dr. James J. Lavender
