PROCEDURES FOR ADMISSION

HSOP (High School Options Program): Students must satisfy any required course prerequisites and satisfy the placement test requirements prior to registration. Students must also submit an official transcript and if available PSAT, SAT and/or ACT scores. HSOP courses are offered at a 65 percent discount on tuition and per-credit fees applied to unlimited number of courses. Additional course required materials, text books, and other fees are not included in the discounted rates. Once registered, you incur a bill and assume responsibility for payment. Failure to attend does not excuse financial responsibility. Payment is required by the payment due dates. Please refer to RCGC.edu for the discounted tuition rates.

Consent for college enrollment while in high school:

This will affirm that permission is granted for _____ to enroll in and attend courses offered by Rowan College at Gloucester County. Student's Name

It is understood that the student will be participating in an adult collegiate environment, and may be asked to participate in voluntary student opinion surveys as well as other college related events. As the parent/guardian, you have the option to decline your child's participation in any survey or collegiate event. To decline participation, please indicate this decision in writing to the Office of Admissions. Additionally, your signature below acknowledges that upon registration for a college course, the student's records are protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974.
